One country—beautiful as one
From sea to mountain closes,
The southland daisies seek the sun
That rims New England's roses.
The same undarkened lights of God
Shine on us from the skylands,
And color every breathing clod
From lowland vales to highlands.

One country? and her flag unfurled
On heights of high endeavor
Is like a garland round a world
Where Freedom lives forever.
Hall to that country! Strong she stands
For loyal hearts that love her,
With Freedom's falchion in her hands
And Freedom's flag above her.
